

23 MAYFIELD

23 Mayfield boutique Guest House awaits you in Edinburgh...

Whatever the reason for your visit to Edinburgh, we are sure you will find our Edinburgh guest house offers the best in Scottish hospitality, with comfortable accommodation in an accessible area of Edinburgh.

23 Mayfield was built in 1868 during the reign of Queen Victoria and is typical of the traditional architecture of its period. All rooms are uniquely decorated with handcrafted solid mahogany furniture according to the theme of the room. 23 Mayfield has a Drawing Room in which you can relax and unwind on our Chesterfield furniture, and in which you will find games, an honesty bar, a selection of books and a laptop all for guest use.

We hope you enjoy your stay at 23 Mayfield and your visit to Edinburgh. Please let us know if there is anything we can do to make your stay more enjoyable. Your hosts are Ross and Kathleen Birnie and family.
